

DynaMonish Chatrath ic Visionary

Monish Chatrath is an astute risk management and corporate governance expert with a personality that exudes dynamism, charisma and enthusiasm for everything he does. As a Risk Advisory Services Partner, he brings in over 25 years of professional experience in providing management with assurance over systems, controls, policies, procedures, governance & risks.

His versatility across industries, functions, cultures & stakeholders, helps him a great deal in helping clients and organizations achieve their growth and business transformation objectives, in India and overseas. Monish has served on several international strategic advisory committees, which have advised the global leadership committees of large organizations on matters relating to change management and intricacies of privately held businesses

His breadth of experience includes:

Apart from playing critical roles at Arthur Andersen & KPMG, EXL Services, and Schlumberger, Monish was closely involved in the development & growth of Grant Thornton and Mazars in India. Today, Monish is a master strategist who has transformed businesses, established financial centers, integrated organizations with varied cultures, created centers of excellence, developed three significant brands in India and structured equity infusions including a historic one at a landmark valuation.

He features prominently in the media, on various forums and platforms and reputed institutions such as Symbiosis & SRCC; apart from industry bodies like FICCI, TIE, ASSOCHAM and CII. Above all, he is an accomplished expert on enterprise wide risk management having executed & led over 75 such assignments over the past two decades.

Honours and Affiliation

- Member of the Rotary (Delhi Mid-Town Club) and co-chairperson of its CSR committee.
- Past Office Bearer (Secretary) on the Board of Governors of the Delhi Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors and also a Past Committee Member of the Doha Chapter of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
- Acclaimed speaker in various forums and on media, on matters relating to corporate governance, risk management and change management.
- Co-authored several publications including widely distributed ones on corporate governance, the telecom industry and the automotive industry.

Education

- Indian Chartered Accountant with over 22 years of post-qualification experience in the profession and industry, in India, United Kingdom, United States, Far East and Middle East Asia.
- B Com (Hons) degree from Sri Venkateswara College, South Campus, New Delhi

Interest & Activities

- Plays squash, tennis and golf. Captained his college team in squash and was the top seed of his school tennis team.
- Extensively travelled and well-versed with economic and business environments across jurisdictions.
- Engages himself in charitable causes such as raising awareness of the role of education of the girl child, development of villages amongst other social activities.