:: MGC & KNAV expands its office in the heart of New Delhi ::

MGC & KNAV Global Risk Advisory LLP ('MGC & KNAV') is announcing some exciting changes. From the time of its launch in September of 2015, KNAV's risk advisory services practice, which is managed by Monish G Chatrath under the name of MGC & KNAV Global Risk Advisory LLP, has demonstrated a fast growth while servicing the risk advisory service requirements of some of the best known and respected corporates in the country.

After expanding the footprint of its risk advisory services practice in the cities of Bengaluru, Hyderabad and Mumbai in India and Atlanta in the US; MGC & KNAV has with effect from June 01, 2017 taken additional premises that are adjacent to its existing office in Square One Building, Saket, New Delhi.

The new office features smartly configured workstations, which are designed to promote employee productivity in a collaborative environment and a state-of-the-art boardroom with multiple screens that have the ability to beam people from various locations for effective conferencing, training, webinars and presentations. MGC & KNAV has over 30 new staff joining us over the next few weeks, some at senior levels; and with such extensive recruitment planned over the ensuing two quarters, it promises to be a busy year.

Speaking on this development, Nishta Sharma, the Global Managing Partner for the KNAV Group said, "The entire KNAV group is excited to see its global risk advisory services practices growing so fast. This growth, coming from both our new and existing clients, is providing unparalleled opportunities for our employees to move up in the organization and develop professionally. This practice has demonstrated a strong appetite for growth and with a satisfied clientele, it remains focused on accelerating this rate of growth into 2018 and beyond."

"We had planned an office expansion in 2019 and I am delighted that this development has taken place, well ahead of the initial schedule! This growth is a testimony to the confidence that our clients have demonstrated in our capabilities and the passion and perseverance of our fast-growing team of talented and committed professionals. We will continue to invest in high quality talent, modern infrastructure and the most suitable international tools to provide our clients what they expect, which is the best-in-class risk advisory services with personalized attention"; said Monish G Chatrath, the Managing Partner of MGC & KNAV Global Risk Advisory LLP.
