

GOING BEYOND BOUNDARIES

KNAV RELEASES ITS 2018 ANNUAL REPORT – Focuses on Technology as a game-changer

KNAV's 2018 Annual Report highlights the firm's efforts to spur stronger client relationships by adopting and embracing technology as a change agent. The latest annual report, curated in an e-format, was quite fittingly, e-launched on December 4, 2018 by Managing Partner, Nishtha Sharma. The electronic launch demonstrates KNAV's commitment towards a green future and a desire to reach clients through the most modern communication channels.

"Seamless and paperless reports are a better fit for everyone. While such reports can be curated explicitly to foster efficiency in circulation, they also help us in contributing to maintaining a green ecosystem," said Atul Deshmukh, Assurance Partner - KNAV.

KNAV is set to cross the 20th anniversary mark and prides itself on continuously providing quality services to its clients across the globe. The firm is showcasing this milestone achievement by highlighting its willingness to constantly change, by being an early adopter, be it using Artificial Intelligence or Robotic Process Automation in its audit process and forensic analysis, and providing safe and secure channels for information exchange through the internet, to its clients.

While the firm ushers in the new, making the distance with its clients smaller by harnessing technology, it has continued to expand its office network. KNAV's newly opened India offices in Bengaluru and Pune are an additional step in the effort to get closer to their clients. To accommodate continuous growth and expansion across service lines, the firm has also moved its flagship India office, in Mumbai, to the nationally recognized Bandra-Kurla Complex financial district.

"Along with fostering client relationships, KNAV also looks at providing a range of advanced technologies to enhance flexible work culture, allows for headcount growth, and build the best talent. Our focus is always on bringing our professionals more opportunities for collaboration, flexibility and innovation," said Nishtha Sharma, Managing Partner – KNAV.

The annual report covers the latest technology solutions and platforms adopted by KNAV to serve its clients and furthermore features the boutique of services provided by the firm. The firm is a giant community of many young and nimble footed professionals who are always on the go at adopting innovation and providing the best experience to their clients. The firm is one of the first few to implement MindBridge Ai™ on audit engagements and also use Cevitr™ Robotic Process Automation.
